Question & Answer Fact Sheet

March 7, 2022

This Question & Answer Fact Sheet highlights selected information for shareholders of Communications Systems, Inc. (“CSI” or “we”) regarding the proposed merger transaction involving Pineapple Energy LLC (“Pineapple”). Capitalized terms used in this Question & Answer Fact Sheet and not otherwise defined herein are defined in the proxy statement/prospectus dated February 3, 2022.

Questions Regarding the Pineapple Merger Transaction

Do CSI shareholders have appraisal or dissenters’ rights with respect to the Pineapple Merger Transaction?

No appraisal or dissenters’ rights are available to CSI shareholders under Minnesota law or CSI’s articles of incorporation or bylaws in connection with any proposal to be presented at the special meeting, including the proposal to approve the Pineapple Merger Transaction.

Questions Regarding Proposal #8 and Golden Parachute Compensation

How much will the CSI executive officers receive at the closing of the merger under their change in control agreements?

CSI does not expect to pay any severance at the closing of the merger under the respective change in control agreements (“CIC Agreement”) in place with Roger H.D. Lacey, Mark D. Fandrich and Scott Fluegge, our executive officers. Each CIC Agreement provides for a cash severance payment, but this payment is “double trigger” requiring both a change of control and a qualifying termination of employment within 24 months following the change of control. Under the CIC Agreements, a change of control occurred on August 2, 2021 with the sale of our E&S Segment business to Lantronix, Inc. We do not expect to terminate the employment of any of Messrs. Lacey, Fandrich or Fluegge in connection with the closing of the merger. Any other amounts paid to the executive officers relating to the merger or otherwise would be in the discretion of the CSI compensation committee.

What are the initial base salaries of the CEO and the CFO of the combined company following the closing of the merger?

Following the merger, Kyle Udseth, currently the Chief Executive Officer of Pineapple, will be the Chief Executive Officer of the combined company and Mark Fandrich, the current Chief Financial Officer of CSI, will continue as the Chief Financial Officer of the combined company.

Mr. Udseth’s base salary as Chief Executive Officer initially will be $300,000 following the closing of the merger. Mr. Fandrich’s base salary as Chief Financial Officer initially will be $265,860 following the closing of the merger, the same base salary as in effect currently and in 2021. Following the merger, the compensation of the combined company’s executive officers will be determined by the compensation committee. The expected members of the compensation committee are Thomas J. Holland (Chair), Marilyn Adler and Randall D. Sampson, each of whom is independent under applicable SEC rules and Nasdaq listing standards.

Questions and Answers Regarding the CVRs

What is CSI's expected accumulated earnings and profits at the time of distribution of the CVRs and how will that affect the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the CVRs?

The issuance of the CVRs to CSI U.S. Holders is more likely than not to be treated as a distribution of property with respect to CSI common stock in an amount equal to the fair market value of the CVRs issued on the date of the issuance.

This distribution generally should be treated first as a taxable dividend to the extent of the CSI U.S. Holder's pro rata share of CSI's current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes), next as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of the CSI U.S. Holder's basis in its CSI common stock, and finally as capital gain from the sale or exchange of CSI common stock with respect to any remaining value.

CSI currently anticipates that its accumulated earnings and profits position will be zero to negative at the anticipated time of distribution of the CVRs. Accordingly, the distribution of the CVRs should be treated as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of the CSI U.S. Holder's basis in its CSI common stock, and then as capital gain from the sale or exchange of CSI common stock with respect to any remaining value.

CSI U.S. Holders are urged to read the discussion in the section entitled "— Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the CVRs" beginning on page 151 of the proxy statement/prospectus and to consult their tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of receipt of the CVRs, as well as the effects of other federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax law.
